

“Beware the Ides of March” Wine Survivor Contest CSA Wine Raffle Contest Rules

There are a few simple rules to be aware of when entering the contest:

1. All team members must be at least 18 years of age
2. The contest is open to all CSA members, their friends, families and associates. The draw process will follow the strict AGLC published guidelines. The Bow Valley Credit Union will oversee the entire process to ensure its integrity. All draw results will be published and available to every participant
3. All teams must arrange to have completed team entry forms and accompanying bottles of wine and full payment delivered in person during the Seniors’ Center office hours between March 15th and 3 pm on April 18th. For communication purposes, each of the 5 entrants for a team must have an email address and optionally, a phone number. Phone numbers and email addresses will be kept confidential.
4. All winning team members must pickup their wine at the Seniors’ Center on the final draw night on April 26th or make pickup arrangements through the Seniors’ Center office within 1 week following the final draw on April 26th unless a mutually agreed to alternative arrangement can be made
5. The CSA will make the final determination on the number and the mix of wines to be awarded to each winning team member. The awards will be in accordance with the guidelines provided and announced in advance of the final draw. The CSA will use its best efforts to have the type and mix of wines be the same for all winning teams

Entry is made easier as:

1. Any adult can enter the raffle. No restrictions on membership, location (can be out of province or country)

2. Any participant can enter more than once on a team or can be on more than one team as long as there are 5 entries per team
3. A team member does not have to be in Canmore to enter the contest or be present on April 26th when the winning teams are announced
4. One team member will submit a team entry on behalf of all five team players
5. Any one member or designated CSA member can pick up winner's wine on behalf of any member of the same team
